Thank you for your interest in contributing to the Wanderlust Gala. The funds raised during this event will be directed toward our three pillars of stupendous giving -- love bombs grants for cancer destroyers, no-GPA-required scholarships, and grants for small business owners -- in our mission of supporting strong and brave women.

In the wake of my second cancer diagnosis -- allegedly incurable stage 4 metastatic triple negative breast cancer -- I launched The Rural Gone Urban Foundation to support brave, strong women who need people in their corner: the gritty, passionate students without a 4.0 seeking scholarships, the small-town moms whose businesses only exist as ideas, and especially the women in the ring with cancer.

When walking through the impossible with my then-two year old daughter and smoke show of a husband, it was not lost on me that if my graduation to heaven came sooner than I'd like, my girl, Elsie, wouldn't have memories of me, her mom.

I wanted, more than anything, the opportunity to teach my daughter one thing she can carry with her throughout her life; and it is absolutely, ringing affirmative loving without an asterisk.

I didn't expect to be here two years later, but somehow, by the grace of God and Big Pharma, each day is the ultimate silver lining of running a life-changing foundation while showing my now nearly 4 year old how true bravery is showing up even with you're scared.

Our vision is to raise more than $150,000. Can we count on you to help? We invite you to send your contribution for the Wanderlust Gala by October 4, 2024.

Thank you, thank you, thank you, for ensuring my legacy is wildly intact for my girl, Elsie, and in doing so changing the lives of humans who need people in their corner.

With immense gratitude,

Brooke Clay Taylor
BOARD CHAIR

THE RURAL GONE URBAN FOUNDATION

Our Programs

Rural Gone Urban Foundation Inc. was founded in 2022 by Brooke Clay Taylor for the "support of strong women doing brave things" and doing so without an asterisk.

Our founding board believes strong women who navigate life bravely are worthy of our support and community.

Open Initiatives:

No-GPA-Required Scholarships: As Harry S. Truman so accurately said, "The 'C' students run the world." We support those who seek education and training after high school regardless of their 4.0 GPA. Good humans can not be defined by a grading system, and we support those with strong character, passion, and drive.

Love Bombs: Only those who crawl, scrape, and pray through the trenches of active cancer treatment can understand the weight of graduating to heaven too soon. We support the bravest of all as they navigate their living legacies.

Small Business Grants: We identify small business owners with slim margins and big dreams. Grants fund critical marketing assets like websites, social media strategy, and advertising plans, key elements in standing out in today's crowded marketplace.

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.
